

Laura Jablonski

Personal Biography

Laura contributes four years of experience in healthcare public relations, stakeholder relations, event planning and medical communications to the team at Six Degrees Medical Consulting. She has worked for both domestic and international clients on various projects in a number of therapeutic areas including diabetes, women's health, brain injury, oncology, arthritis and anemia.

Prior to joining the team at Six Degrees Medical Consulting, Laura acted as an Account Executive at an international public relations agency providing day-to-day support for a number of client accounts. She has experience in the planning and execution of communications programs, including the development of media materials, coordinating all aspects of events and conducting extensive media relations with national and local media.

Laura has managed a number of partnership projects and patient outreach programs with stakeholder groups including the International Diabetes Federation, International Society of Pediatric and Adolescent Diabetes, Rethink Breast Cancer, Lung Cancer Canada, Canadian Diabetes Association, Lymphoma Foundation Canada and the Colorectal Cancer Association of Canada. Her strengths lie in the positive and enthusiastic attitude she brings to each project, in addition to strong writing skills and a keen eye for detail. Her goal is to achieve the best outcomes for her clients while meeting their objectives.

Laura has a Business Degree from the University of Western Ontario and also holds a post-graduate certificate in Public Relations from Humber College.